ISC international is an Institute for the professional education of managers with people responsibility, project managers and managers in HR and Organisational Development, as well as internal and external consultants.

We offer innovative programs which are based on a systemic approach in an English speaking context.

The ISC-i is the partner institute of the "Institut für systemische Beratung Wiesloch", located in Augsburg. Volker Köhninger, founder and head of the ISC-i is also trainer at the ISB in Wiesloch.
